out in a profession of her own. She The tale of the two would-be soldiers who, after having been refused by the recruiting authorities, went of cold water, is responsible for an untrustworthy story sent by a corresponding to satisfy the dramatic yearnings of her childhood days in the part of Marjolaine in "Pomander Walk," which Mr. Parker had just written. She made her first appearance on the stage in America four seasons ago. After two seasons of "Pomander Walk," she appeared in "Joseph and His Brethren." Little Em'ly is the third role of her brief and happy stage career.

Let a suppose Miss Parker became
